THREE LIGHTHOUSES OF VOLUSIA COUNTY

Wednesday, March 23, 2022 – 4 PM

Presented by:

John Mann (Lead Docent) & Zach Hopple (Programs Manager)
Ponce Inlet Lighthouse & Museum

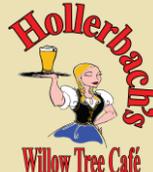

Yes, everyone knows about the beautiful 175 foot-tall, giant red brick lighthouse in Ponce Inlet, named a National Historic Landmark in 1998. It's fun to visit, climb and learn its fascinating chronicle and the technology used to assist with navigation before anyone dreamed of GPS.

However, Volusia County did have three lighthouses built along its coasts. The presentation will cover the history of lighthouses, facets of lighthouses throughout the world and history, with a special focus on the three lighthouses of Volusia County.

And you will learn one of Volusia's best kept historic secrets!

No entrance fee however a donation to the Enterprise Museum is appreciated.
